Globe To Open Wednesday

On Baytown's Decker St

Opening day of a new Globe Shopping City, 1700 Decker at Garth in Baytown, has been scheduled for Wednesday, announced M. B. Rudnick, managing director of the Houston-based chain.

Bill Shimek will serve as the store's manager. Don Glenn and Bob Thierry are Globe's soft and hard lines managers. The store will employ more than 250 area residents.

Following official ribbon-cutting ceremonies by Mayor Glen Walker and Globe officials at 9 a.m., doors will open to give Baytowners their first look at the 80,000-square-foot city within a city.

Over 70 complete departments are incorporated in Globe Shopping City. Included are clothing for the family, housewares, hardwares, major home appliances, a discount pharmacy, full-size supermarket, cameras, toys, sporting goods and a free standing automotive service and tire center.

Representatives from many national companies will be on hand to demonstrate everything from appliances to toys for the special grand opening event, and special values will be featured in every department.

Store hours will be 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily.
